Accreditation University to hold DMEPOS Accreditation Workshop in Cary, NC

Cary, NC- Accreditation University (AU), a division of Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC), will hold a DMEPOS Accreditation workshop at its headquarters in Cary, NC on March 23, 2016. The workshop will educate healthcare providers on the requirements needed to achieve and maintain compliance with ACHC Accreditation Standards. The workshop will be instructed by leading industry expert, Greg Stowell, Education and Consulting Manager.

"These workshops are a great tool to help DME providers undergo the accreditation process, whether it is their initial survey or a renewal cycle," said Greg Stowell. "The workshops are designed to help providers achieve success through hands-on training that reviews expectations for survey day and strategies for compliance."

As a nationally recognized accreditation organization, ACHC places great value on continuing education in regards to achieving and maintaining accreditation. The formalization of AU as a division of ACHC focuses resources within the organization to provide a full range of educational offerings that meet the individual needs of providers. As such, regularly scheduled workshops are held throughout the year to provide education on ACHC Accreditation compliance requirements. AU workshops provide in-depth training on each step of the accreditation process, specific strategies that can be utilized to prepare for the survey, and ongoing compliance with ACHC standards. Attendees may register for AU workshops by visiting AccreditationUniversity.com. In addition to accreditation workshops, AU also offers program-specific resources including AU Accreditation Guide to Success workbooks, compliance checklists, and regular multimedia updates.

By achieving ACHC accreditation, DMEPOS providers are able to demonstrate their commitment to delivering the highest quality of service by complying with the most stringent national regulations and industry best practices.

AU is a division of ACHC, a non-profit accreditation organization that has stood as a symbol of quality and excellence since 1986. ACHC has CMS Deeming Authority for Home Health, Hospice, and DMEPOS and a Quality Management System that is certified to ISO 9001:2008. ACHC's broad range of accreditation programs also includes Pharmacy, Private Duty Nursing, and Behavioral Health. ACHC is the provider's choice for accreditation because of its personal Account Advisors, relevant and realistic standards, competitive pricing, and consultative approach to accreditation. Accreditation by ACHC reflects an organization's dedication and commitment to meeting standards that facilitate a higher level of performance and patient care.
