ACHC and MAC Legacy Partner to Enhance Home Health and Hospice Patient Care

Cary, NC – Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announces its collaboration with MAC Legacy, an organization dedicated to providing high-quality services and products for home health and hospice agencies.

“ACHC is very excited to partner with MAC Legacy group. Their resources and education are exactly what our providers need to be successful,” said Matt Hughes, ACHC Director of Business Development. “Marcylle and her team have always been supporters of ours, and I am just thrilled to finally have this partnership in place to offer additional benefits to their clients.”

MAC Legacy clients can now receive special pricing on ACHC Accreditation services for home health, hospice, and private duty programs, as well as discounts on ACHCU resources that can help healthcare providers prepare for ACHC Accreditation and stay up-to-date on industry changes through educational webinars and workshops.

“MAC Legacy is proud to announce our partnership with Accreditation Commission for Health Care,” said Marcylle Combs, BS, MS, RN, CHCE, and MAC Legacy Owner and President. “This partnership empowers our clients to thrive with the tools needed under current changes within the industry, allowing them to focus on patient care.”

Since 1995, the team at MAC Legacy has worked to create, develop, and promote excellence in home health and hospice leadership and achieve superior results in patient care. The company, formerly known as Foundation Management Services (FMS), offers resources, services, and products for providers, including consulting, coding, cheat sheets, and audit tools designed to make health care simple. As a nationally recognized accreditor, ACHC offers a broad suite of home health, hospice, and private duty compliance solutions, including accreditation programs for Home Health Aide, Medical Social Services, Skilled Nursing, Hospice Care, Hospice Inpatient Care, Private Duty Nursing, Private Duty Aide, and Private Duty Companion/Homemaker services. ACHC has CMS deeming authority for Home Health, Hospice, Renal Dialysis, and DMEPOS.

ACHC has over 30 years of experience promoting safe, quality patient care and is known for providing value, integrity, and the industry’s best customer service. Providers benefit from our flexible, educational approach, which gives them options tailored to fit their needs. We assist providers throughout the accreditation process by offering access to personal Account Advisors, clinical and regulatory support, and program-specific educational resources. And with no annual fees, ACHC offers cost-effective, competitive pricing to help providers achieve their accreditation goals.
