ACHC and HCA of MA Renew Support of Home Care Providers

Cary, NC – Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announces the renewal of its partnership with Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts, a nonprofit association that promotes home care as an integral part of the health care system. Founded in 1969, HCA of MA promotes industry advancements through advocacy, education, and regulatory support for providers.

"HCA of Massachusetts and ACHC are committed to ensuring everyone has access to the highest quality care," said Matt Hughes, ACHC Vice President. "Our partnership allows HCA members the ability to demonstrate their dedication to enhancing quality of care and patient safety by achieving and maintaining accreditation. This is especially important as regulatory and payor requirements continue to evolve."

The partnership renewal allows HCA and ACHC to continue working together to deliver the best resources to Massachusetts home care agencies, organizations, and individual professionals. HCA of Massachusetts members are eligible for special pricing on ACHC Accreditation for home health, hospice, private duty, and home infusion therapy services, as well as discounts on educational workshops and workbooks that can help them prepare for accreditation.

As a leading industry advocate, HCA of Massachusetts works to ensure patients receive the highest level of care and are treated with dignity and respect. The association started with a small group of home care agencies and has grown to over 180 agency members across the state. HCA provides value, resources, and partnership for providers and strives to advance industry standards by advocating for ethical, compassionate, and quality home-based care. Members receive access to a range of education and expert advice on regulatory and procedural concerns. For more information, visit www.thinkhomecare.org.
