ACHC and STACK Partner to Enhance Pharmacy Operations

CARY, N.C. – Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announced today it is partnering with STACK, a national provider of proprietary asset management software for pharmacies.

“ACHC and STACK understand the challenges pharmacies face to continuously deliver the best care while also maintaining clear, accurate records,” said Dr. Jon Pritchett, ACHC Program Director. “STACK provides innovative technology solutions to simplify pharmacy operations. Our mutual goal is to help pharmacies remain compliant with regulatory requirements and improve business operations more easily and efficiently.”

“We’re thrilled and honored for the opportunity to partner with ACHC to drive innovative compliance solutions forward,” said Jonathan Ogurchak, PharmD, CSP, CEO of STACK. “The ability for pharmacies to meet the high level of expectations from ACHC easily through our curated platform has always been a benefit, and we’re excited to now offer solutions alongside ACHC.”

The collaboration gives STACK clients exclusive pricing on ACHC Accreditation for specialty and compounding pharmacies and other accreditation options. Discounts on ACHCU educational resources that support the accreditation process also are available.

About STACK

STACK is the industry's only pharmacy information management platform and is designed to align ongoing management of critical components of your professional life. Whether compliance with third-party requirements (like accreditation or licensure) or aligning organizational membership benefits, the intuitive framework ensures that no deadlines are missed and nothing is lost in a sea of multiple passwords.
