ACHC and HCAF Renew Collaboration Supporting Home-Based Care Providers

CARY, N.C. – Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announces the renewal of its partnership with Home Care Association of Florida (HCAF), a nonprofit association that promotes home-based care as an integral part of the healthcare system.

“HCAF and ACHC are dedicated to ensuring that everyone has access to the highest-quality care,” said Susan Mills, ACHC Senior Program Director. “Our collaborative efforts allow HCAF members to continue their demonstration of dedication to enhancing the quality of care and patient safety by achieving and maintaining accreditation.”

“ACHC has been a valuable partner with HCAF for many years, and we are excited to continue this joint venture together,” said Bobby Lolley, RN, HCAF’s Executive Director. “As home-based care providers face a variety of challenges, including the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, shrinking profit margins, and a shortage of staff, we are pleased to extend discounts on ACHC’s internationally recognized accreditation services.”

The partnership renewal gives HCAF members special pricing on ACHC Accreditation for home health, hospice, private duty, palliative care, and home infusion therapy services, as well as discounts on educational workshops and workbooks to help members prepare for accreditation.

About HCAF

A leading industry advocate, HCAF provides representation, communication, and advocacy to support providers in their delivery of high-quality care and cost-effective services to patients and clients in their homes. HCAF works to advance industry standards for ethical, compassionate, and quality home-based care.
