ACHC and KHCHA Renew Partnership to Support Agencies

CARY, N.C. – Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announces the renewal of its partnership with Kansas Home Care & Hospice Association (KHCHA), a nonprofit that provides leadership, support, and services for hospices and home care agencies throughout the state.

"ACHC and KHCHA understand the challenges hospices and home care agencies face," said Susan Mills, ACHC Senior Program Director. "KHCHA is a passionate advocate for agencies and the patients they serve. We both are committed to driving quality improvement and enhancing patient outcomes."

"Our collaboration with ACHC allows our members to strengthen the quality of care and patient safety by achieving this accreditation," said Jane Kelly, KHCHA Executive Director. "We are happy to continue this important partnership."

The renewed collaboration allows KHCHA members to continue receiving preferred pricing on ACHC Accreditation for Home Health, Hospice, Private Duty, and Palliative Care services. Discounts are also available on resources offered by ACHCU, the educational division of ACHC.

About Kansas Home Care & Hospice Association

As a leading industry advocate, Kansas Home Care & Hospice Association is the voice for agencies and patients throughout Kansas. KHCHA helps agencies stay informed about all aspects of running an agency — from changes in rules and regulations to billing, staffing, and other business concerns.

KHCHA members receive access to a wide range of educational resources and industry updates.
