ACHC and TNMHO Renew Partnership to Support Hospices

CARY, N.C. – Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announces the renewal of its partnership with the Texas and New Mexico Hospice Organization (TNMHO), a nonprofit that provides leadership, support, and services for hospices throughout Texas and New Mexico.

"ACHC and TNMHO are dedicated to elevating hospices to enhance quality of patient care," said Susan Mills, ACHC Senior Program Director. "Extending our collaboration reinforces our mutual commitment to helping hospices maintain regulatory compliance and sustain a culture of continuous improvement."

"TNMHO members love our partnership with ACHC," said TNMHO Executive Director Brandie Baker, CAE. "They get deeply discounted survey rates and exceptional service and education."

The renewed collaboration allows TNMHO members to continue receiving preferred pricing on ACHC Accreditation for hospice and palliative care. A discount is available for Telehealth Certification. Discounts are also available on resources offered by ACHCU, the educational division of ACHC.

About Texas and New Mexico Hospice Organization

Founded in 1983, TNMHO is the largest and oldest organization in both states that focuses solely on hospice. The nonprofit works to promote quality, ethical care and services for hospice patients.

TNMHO provides a wide range of educational resources, including webinars and training programs, that drive advancements in quality improvement. The organization also represents hospices before legislative and regulatory bodies at national and state levels.
