ACHC and WorldView Partner to Support In-Home Care Providers

CARY, N.C. – Leading accreditor Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announced it is partnering with WorldView, a top provider of healthcare workflow automation and interoperability technology solutions.

"ACHC is thrilled to partner with WorldView to elevate care standards and drive operational efficiency for home-based care providers," said Susan Mills, ACHC Senior Program Director. "Together, we're committed to helping organizations enhance their ability to deliver quality patient care in a sustainable business environment."

"We're excited to partner with ACHC, a leader in healthcare accreditation and quality standards," said Jared Robey, Senior Vice President of Sales at WorldView. "This partnership is a big step for WorldView as we help healthcare organizations handle their documents and manage compliance. By bringing together ACHC's trusted standards with our technology, we're confident we can make daily operations smoother and improve results for both providers and patients."

The new collaboration allows WorldView customers to receive preferred pricing on ACHC Accreditation for home health, hospice, and home care/private duty services.
