ACHC and OCHCH Renew Support for In-Home Care Providers

CARY, N.C. – Leading accreditor Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announced today it is renewing its partnership with the Ohio Council for Home Care & Hospice (OCHCH), a nonprofit association that represents the interests of home and community-based providers in Ohio.

"ACHC and OCHCH are mutually dedicated to elevating home-based care agencies to enhance quality of care and improve outcomes," said Susan Mills, ACHC Senior Program Director. "For 60 years, OCHCH has provided vital leadership, advocacy, training, and resources to support in-home care providers throughout the state. Extending our collaboration reinforces our shared commitment of helping providers sustain a culture of continuous improvement."

"The Ohio Council for Home Care & Hospice is proud to continue our partnership with ACHC," said Jen Goldsberry, Community Relations Director at OCHCH. "Not only are they a long-time member of our organization, they are a strong and reliable partner for many in our community."

"Their willingness to engage and be available to support Ohio agencies is exceptional," she continued. "They also provide valuable educational content that members may access for discounted rates. With ACHC's commitment to service, we look forward to continuing to elevate home health, home care, and hospice care across the state so patients can enjoy peace and wellness at home."

Our continued collaboration allows OCHCH members to receive preferred pricing on ACHC Accreditation for home health, hospice, and home care/private duty services. Discounts are also available on select resources offered by ACHCU, the education division of ACHC.

About OCHCH

2025 marks a powerful milestone for the Ohio Council for Home Care & Hospice – 60 years of supporting the people and agencies who care for Ohio's most vulnerable residents. If you've ever had a nurse visit your aging parent at home, or a home health aide stop by to help a neighbor recover from surgery, chances are the agency behind that care has been supported by OCHCH. We know that many people may not be familiar with what home care or hospice really means until they need it. It's not something you think about — until it's everything. That's where we come in.
