ACHC and corecubed Partner to Support In-Home Care Providers

CARY, N.C. – Leading accreditor Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announced today it is partnering with corecubed, a national marketing and advertising firm that specializes in services for home-care providers.

“Accreditation plays a vital role in helping home care providers demonstrate quality, build trust, and grow their organizations,” said Susan Mills, ACHC Senior Program Director. “By partnering with corecubed, we’re combining that value with expert marketing and advertising strategies to help agencies communicate about the exceptional care they deliver and set themselves apart in their communities.”

“We’re excited to partner with ACHC to support providers committed to excellence in care,” said Marisa Snook, President/CEO of corecubed. “Like ACHC, corecubed understands the unique challenges faced by home care agencies. By combining our marketing expertise with ACHC’s trusted accreditation services, we can empower agencies to grow their visibility, build trust with referral sources, and reach more families in need. Together, we help providers stand out for their quality and dedication in an increasingly competitive market.”

This new partnership allows corecubed customers to receive preferred pricing on ACHC Accreditation for home health, hospice, and home care/private duty services. Discounts are also available on select resources offered by ACHCU, the education division of ACHC.
