ACHC and KHCHA Renew Partnership to Support Home Care and Hospice Providers Across Kansas

CARY, N.C. – Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) is pleased to announce the renewal of its partnership with the Kansas Home Care & Hospice Association (KHCHA), the statewide organization representing home care and hospice providers through advocacy, education, and industry support.

“ACHC and KHCHA share a commitment to helping agencies deliver safe, high-quality care,” said Susan Mills, Senior Program Director at ACHC. “KHCHA plays a vital role in equipping providers with the resources they need, and we’re proud to continue partnering to support their mission.”

“We are delighted to renew our partnership with ACHC, allowing us to continue offering valuable discounts and educational opportunities to our members,” said Kristen Ada, KHCHA Executive Director. “We look forward to the positive benefits this ongoing collaboration will provide, particularly to those seeking ACHC accreditation.”

Through the renewed partnership, KHCHA members will continue to receive preferred pricing on ACHC Accreditation for Home Care, Home Health, Hospice, Home Infusion Therapy, and Palliative Care. Members also have access to exclusive discounts on resources from ACHCU, the educational division of ACHC.

About Kansas Home Care & Hospice Association

Founded in 1973, the Kansas Home Care & Hospice Association is the premier statewide organization representing home care and hospice. It offers leadership, support, and services to the home care and hospice industry in Kansas. By focusing on representation, information, and education for in-home care providers, KHCHA works to ensure Kansans have continued access to high-quality home care and hospice services.
